CIVIL ACTION

FILE NO. 2013 CV 2407-A

VERDICT FORM

PART I: (Mark one)

We the jury find in favor of the Plaintiffs.

OR

We the jury find in favor of the Defendant Gregory McLaughlin.

If you find in favor of the Defendant Gregory McLaughlin, please stop and return this verdict to the Court. If you find in favor of the Plaintiffs, please continue to Part II.

PART II:

With respect to the July 17, 2013 incident, please apportion negligence (by percentage), if any, as you find it to be, among the following: (A finding of zero percent negligence equals no negligence)

- (a) Frank Day 50%
- (b) Gregory McLaughlin 50%
- TOTAL (must equal 100%) 100%

If you find that Frank Day's negligence is 50% or greater, please stop and return this verdict to the Court. If you find that Frank Day's negligence is less than 50%, please continue to Part III.

PART III:

A. Without any reduction for your percentages of negligence, what is the total amount of legally recoverable damages, if any, sustained by Plaintiff Frank Day as a result of the July 17, 2013 incident? $ _____ (insert such sum in dollars and cents as you think Plaintiff is entitled to recover).

B. Without any reduction for your percentages of negligence, what is the total amount of legally recoverable damages, if any, sustained by Plaintiff Mary Frances Day as a result of the July 17, 2013 incident? $ _____ (insert such sum in dollars and cents as you think Plaintiff is entitled to recover).
